

To Our County Council:

My wish is that the portion of the $1M supplemental allocation that would go towards abortion “services” would instead be distributed to pregnancy centers whose mission is to assist women in crisis pregnancies by providing loving support during and after the pregnancy, without resorting to terminating the life of a baby who has no voice in the matter.

Sincerely,

Ben Creitz